

Macao Institute for Tourism Studies

Macao, China

Established in: 1995

Number of students enrolled: 1,700 for academic year 2019/20

Website for incoming exchange students :

<https://www.ift.edu.mo/EN/IncomingExchange/Home/Index/831>

Attractiveness of the country and city your university is located in:

Macao bears witness to the first and longest-lasting encounter between the West and China. The impact of this encounter can be traced in the fusion of different cultures that characterise the historic core zone of Macao. Within a short distance, you can easily find Chinese temples and Western churches in the same neighbourhood.

The strengths of academics at your university:

Our faculty are strengths in the area of the below programmes which we offer:

- ✓ Bachelor of Arts in Culinary Arts Management
- ✓ Bachelor of Science in Heritage Management
- ✓ Bachelor of Science in Hotel Management
- ✓ Bachelor of Science in Tourism Business Management
- ✓ Bachelor of Science in Tourism Event Management
- ✓ Bachelor of Science in Tourism Retail and Marketing Management

Available student life support during the exchange:

Student and Alumni Services Team helps overseas students who would like to join a semester of exchange programme at the Institute. It assists students in going through all the formalities of the exchange programme and provides full support to students during the exchange semester.

Opportunity of interaction with other students:

Students can participate in activities organised by the Institute during the exchange period. A week of Welcoming Programme will be held at semester commencement in order for non-local students (including exchange students) to get familiar with the study and the living environment in Macao.

