

University of Bergen Bergen, Norway

Attractiveness of the country and city your university is located in:

Bergen is Norway's second-largest city. With a population of 279, 000, it offers an appealing cultural life and a safe and relaxed urban atmosphere that remains deeply rooted in nature.

The strengths of academics at your university:

Currently we have more than 400 courses for exchange students taught in English. The University of Bergen hosts more than 1000 exchange students every year, the great majority through the Erasmus+ programme. We offer courses both at bachelor's and master's level for exchange students.

Available student life support during the exchange:

The main task of the Student Welfare Organisation (Sammen) is to support your well-being during your time as a student in Bergen. Sammen exists to keep students safe, healthy, and cared for: Health, counselling, cafeterias, housing, training, bookshops, etc.

Opportunity of interaction with other students:

The University of Bergen offers language learning based on a language exchange programme called Tandem. This is available for all international students studying at UiB, Norwegian students who plan an exchange semester abroad, foreign language students, or any UiB students who want to improve their language skills.

Established in: 1946

Number of students enrolled: 18 500
