About applying for a seminar if you plan to transfer colleges

If you plan to transfer colleges, you can apply for the seminars of your post-transfer college.

Your current college	Seminar Application	Transfer application	Seminar class you will enroll	Note
 APM Student	Apply → APM Seminar → APS Seminar → Pass	→ Pass	→ APS Seminar	You can register for the seminar when both your college transfer application and your application for a seminar in your post-transfer college have been accepted.
 APM Student	Apply → APM Seminar → APS Seminar → Pass	→ Fail	→ None	If your college transfer application is not accepted, you cannot register for a seminar in the post-transfer college you applied for, even if your seminar application was accepted.
 APM Student	Apply → APM Seminar → Pass → APS Seminar → Pass	→ Fail	→ APM Seminar	RECOMMENDED We recommend applying for seminars in both your current college and your post-transfer college in case your transfer application is not approved.
