1. Message from APU

こんにちは! Konnichiwa!

Congratulations on your acceptance as a Study Abroad/Exchange Student to Ritsumeikan Asia Pacific University (APU). While at APU, you will have the opportunity to experience Japanese language and culture while participating in the truly multi-cultural environment which the APU campus offers. In many ways, you represent your university and your home country to the APU community. It is our opportunity to learn from you at the same time that you are learning from us. We welcome you and hope that your time at APU will be an enriching experience.

Quick APU facts:

- Established in 2000
- Nearly 6,000 undergraduate and graduate students
- 43% are international students from 79 countries (See Student Enrollment by Country/Region)

2. Tips from Past Exchange Students

【Practical tips】

- Save a lot of money because going anywhere is expensive.
- Bring money to tide you through the first 2 months; you won't be able to remit until then.
- Take enough cash with you in case the ATM on Campus doesn't accept your card.
- Things to bring: Bedding, sheets and blankets are provided in AP House. Things such as towels, cooking pots and pans, and utensils are not provided but the 100 yen stores in Japan have good products at a very reasonable price! Other things you may want to bring (or buy upon arrival)...
  - It is hard to find healthy food here on campus, so bring something with you (or have sent from home) if you think you will want to eat something that you are used to.
  - Do not bring anything heavy - most necessary things can be bought in 100 yen shop.
  - If you like a specific sport, you might want to bring the equipment to APU. (I.e. Soccer, if you plan to play freely, AP house does not have a soccer ball to loan out.) If not, you can just play with others and meet friends that way. Either way, sports, music, and art are great ways to make friends. Also, bring your musical instrument, most likely it will be more expensive in Japan.

- A raincoat (June and July is the rainy season in Japan)
  - Bring a windbreaker because the weather can be very extreme.
  - Good walking shoes and Indoor shoes (Those who would like to use the gym must bring indoor gym shoes that have never been worn outside.)
  - Bring comfortable shoes because there is a lot of walking and stair-climbing to do.
  - Digital camera
  - Pillow – if you are picky about pillows! AP House pillows are very hard.
  - Souvenirs and/or pictures from your home country to share with the people you meet!
- Buy triple-tickets (discount bus tickets to go to downtown Beppu)
  - Be mentally prepared that you will have only very limited wifi.
  - It will take quite a while before you get a cell phone, Wifi is only provided in certain places on campus and the AP House lobby, be prepared for that.
  - Be sure to get informed about the course registration system and procedures.

【Japanese language】

- Practice the basics of Japanese before coming.
- Start learning hiragana and katakana as soon as you are accepted for the program, even if it is confusing and does not make any sense. Learning to match them up will help in the long run.

【Getting involved and Perspective】

- Be open-minded, accepting, and have fun.
- Most of the time, things will not work out or be the way you expect it to be. Some things will amaze you and others might disappoint you, but keep an open mind. When you get to APU, talk to people!!
- Try as much as is offered, and come to all the different circles to try at least once!
- Exchange problems with other exchange students
- If you want an international experience and know more than one language (or are learning a new language), APU is a good place for that. If you are looking specifically for Japanese culture or a very Japanese atmosphere, elsewhere may be best.
- Be the first person to approach new friends. You will find your university life here in APU is full of surprise.
- Be patient and positive
- Try to get in touch with the Japanese culture and people as much as possible, despite the linguistic and cultural barriers. It would be a huge mistake to stay focused on friends from our country for the whole time!
- I would say just to remember you are in Japan, not your own country so try your best to try Japanese customs and social etiquette... it will make your trip better

3.Preparation for Departure and Arrival at APU

(1) VISA ACQUISITION

(4) INFORMATION ABOUT TAKING LANGUAGE CLASSES (Japanese, English, and Asia Pacific (AP) Languages)

Students who are studying at APU on student exchange or short-term study abroad are eligible to register for English, Japanese and Asia Pacific (AP) Language courses.

Points of Caution with Regard to Language Courses

1. Short term and exchange students register for classes after regular APU students. Accordingly there is a chance that language classes (including Japanese Intermediate and above) may be filled by regular students. If this happens then you may not be able to register for the course of your choice.
2. It is possible that the timetable of some foundation or major subjects that you wish to take may clash with that of your chosen language course. In this situation you will need to decide which of the two conflicting courses to register.
3. Do not skip classes or stop taking a class part of the way through the semester without discussing it with the class instructor.
4. It is not possible to change course level. Placement tests will be held to determine your level (an oral interview may be held for students taking a Japanese course).

Japanese Courses

1. It is not a requirement for you to take Japanese courses. Only students that want to study Japanese should register for these courses.
2. It is not possible to take 2 courses of a different level at the same time. E.g. You cannot register Foundation I and Foundation II in the same semester.
3. The level of Japanese that you have studied at your home institution may not match exactly with the levels that are offered at APU. The levels offered correspond to APU's own original system. Please take classes at the level in which you have been placed.
4. No exemptions or prerequisite subjects are needed in order to take Foundation Japanese I. The level that you are placed in will be determined by the pre-enrollment questionnaire about Japanese study that you submit and the results of your placement test.

TO DO BEFORE COMING:

If it is your first time to study Japanese language and you plan to take Japanese classes at APU, you are strongly encouraged to study and learn the Hiragana alphabet prior to coming! Survival Japanese and the Ittsu No Tobira text is available online and students are strongly encouraged to study this if they plan to study Japanese at APU!

English Courses

1. Students whose first language is English are not able to register the English language classes.
2. Students whose first language is not English who enter APU as Japanese-basis students and are willing to register for the English course, must make sure to take the placement test. Those who take the placement test will be registered in a course and will not be able to cancel their registration at a later date.
3. Students whose first language is not English who enter APU as English-basis students are only eligible to register the “Languages for Specific Purposes (English for Business Writing, English for Business Presentation, English Project 1, English for Discussion and Debate” courses. Students who wish to register these English courses are required to submit the “English Background Questionnaire” in advance.

AP Language Courses

Chinese, Korean, Malay/Indonesian, Spanish, Thai and Vietnamese are offered at APU.

1. It is not possible to study your first (native) language.
2. English-basis students must complete or be exempted from “Japanese Foundation I, II, and III” in order to register. Japanese-basis students must complete or be exempted from “Elementary English A and B” in order to register.

6. Health and Insurance

1 Medication:

There is a limit on the amount of medicine (painkillers, etc) that you can bring through customs. Persons traveling to Japan carrying prescription and non-prescription medications should consult the nearest Japanese Embassy, or a Japanese Consulate before leaving their country to confirm whether they will be allowed to bring the particular medication into Japan.

Helpful website: <http://japan.usembassy.gov/e/acs/tacs-medimport.html>

2) APU designated Insurance (mandatory for exchange/study abroad students)

All International students at APU (including exchange/study abroad students) are required to purchase National Health Insurance and Student's Comprehensive Renter's Insurance (CRI) for personal liability. When you present your national health insurance card at a hospital, you will only be responsible for 30% of the cost. Everyone is required by law to join this medical insurance system. Students will be able to apply for this during orientations for new students.

The mandatory insurance plans do not cover your travel period before arriving in Japan and after leaving APU when returning home; therefore, ensure to purchase an appropriate insurance to cover your travels. Also feel free to take extra insurance policy if necessary.

NHI Coverage Period: Arrival Date – Departure Date

CRI Coverage Period: Semester Students: 6 months from arrival date

Year Students: March 1 year from arrival date

Exchange Period	National Health Insurance Fees (Payment Deadline)	Student's Comprehensive Renter's Insurance Fees (Payment Deadline)
1 semester	Approx. 10,000 yen (November 2014)	Approx. 3,000 yen (To be paid with AP House Fees)
1 year	Approx. 10,000 yen (first payment in November 2014, second payment in June 2015)	Approx. 5,000 yen (To be paid with AP House Fees)

7. Life at APU and Beppu

➤ APU Buddies

Students who requested on will be paired with an “APU Buddy” (a Japanese or International student). The buddies will help you navigate your new life at APU and Beppu, help expand your network at APU as well as assist you in finding the information and resources you need for a smooth transition and adjustment to Japanese as well as “APU” culture.

Your buddies will:

- E-mail you before you arrive. Feel free to ask questions about life in APU and Beppu!
- Provide assistance on Orientation Day

Here are some examples of when you can ask your buddies for help:

- Learning the bus routes and how to ride a bus
- Shopping at a local supermarket
- Going to the post office
- Visiting the Health Clinic on campus or a local hospital
- Practicing for a Japanese class presentation

➤ Bank Account

Study Abroad/Exchange students are not required to open a bank account in Japan (except for scholarship recipients) but there will be a bank account guidance session for students who wish to open an account. It will take a couple months before your bank account can be set up.

➤ Cell phones

It can take a couple months for students to purchase a cell phone as exchange students first need to complete the necessary paperwork to register with Beppu City. Many exchange students get a prepaid package with the Softbank company (initial charge of approximately 11,000 JPY). Other students purchase a B-Mobile sim card and use smart phone applications to contact friends. (<http://www.bmobile.ne.jp/sim/index.html>). Note that wifi access is very limited in Japan and on the APU campus compared to what you may be accustomed to in your home countries and universities.

➤ Clubs

There are about 200 clubs (called “circles” in Japan) and societies on campus. This is a great way to get involved on campus! You can visit the Student Office after arrival if you wish to get in touch with a certain circle.

➤ Computers and Internet Access

There are computer rooms at AP House and computer labs on campus. If you bring your laptop, you will also be able to access the internet in your room. You will be given a user account and password and information at the orientation.

➤ Electricity

Electrical sockets in Japan have two flat pins and electricity is 100 V AC with a 50 to 60 Hz cycle. If you plan to bring electrical equipment, you should make sure it is compatible with Japanese electricity. A travel agent or travel store may be able to assist you.

➤ Meals

There is no meal plan at APU. During your stay at APU, you will have the option of eating at the APU cafeteria or cooking in the communal kitchens at AP House. To eat at the cafeteria, you will need approximately 300 ~ 500 yen for breakfast and 400 – 1000 yen for lunch and dinner. Keep in mind that Japanese portions may be much smaller than what you are accustomed to. You may not be able to buy food you eat at home - bring food or snacks you may miss!

➤ Money Matters

It is said that Japan is an expensive country; however, located in Beppu, APU has the advantage of being situated in a more reasonably priced area. Transportation is a little expensive with a round trip to downtown Beppu costing approximately 670 yen with discount “triple” tickets which can be bought at the Co-op shop on campus.

Japan is a cash-based society and we advise you to have enough cash on hand. Credit cards (VISA, MasterCard, American Express, and JCB) can be used at department stores and major shops; however it can be difficult in small supermarkets and retailers. Checks are not accepted.

The Post Office ATMs located on campus let you use overseas-issued cards. (Service Hours: Mon-Fri 9:00-18:00, Sat 9:00-17:00, Sun& National Holidays 9:00-17:00)

For a full list of card types accepted, see Japan Post International ATM Service.

The Seven Bank ATMS in Seven Eleven Convenience Stores also accept some foreign credit cards. Please note that there will be an extra charge for money transactions

The average exchange student spends 50,000 to 60,000 JPY per month.

Here is a rough estimation of living costs in Beppu

Food/meals	30,000 – 40,000 JPY/month
Academic Expenses (per semester)	10,000 – 20,000 JPY/semester
Transportation	6,000 JPY /month (approx cost for going downtown twice a week)
Miscellaneous	10,000 JPY

➤ Transportation

It takes about 30 – 40 minutes by bus from APU to downtown Beppu. The “Triple” (Discount bus tickets) are available at the university co-op store (discount tickets: approximately 670 yen for a round trip).

➤ Weather

Located on the southern island of Kyushu, Beppu has a mild climate, compared to other parts of Japan. However, you will still be able to experience the full four seasons. The maximum temperature in Beppu is around 35 degrees centigrade and the minimum temperature is around -4 degrees centigrade. August is the hottest month, February being the coldest month of the year. See here for more information.

➤ Work (Part-time employment or jobs)

Study Abroad/Exchange students are able to work part-time in Japan but it takes a few months to receive your work permit. In order to work, students must apply for a Work Permit. The Academic Office does not offer support for finding work but information is available at the APU Student Office. Please keep in mind that job options may be limited if you do not speak Japanese.

Information on part-time jobs is available on bulletin boards, web sites, magazines and the newspaper, but the number is still very limited. Furthermore, most of the jobs available will require you to speak Japanese. Because of this, you should prepare enough financial resources that you can go through school without having to do a part time work.

While you can apply for a work permit at immigration in the airport when arriving in Japan, do not apply if you do not intend to work at a part time job or if a scholarship you are receiving prohibits you from having a part time job. If you do not apply when entering Japan, you can apply while in school. Additionally, be careful of the restrictions imposed on students with part time jobs (such as working a maximum of 28 hours per week while school is in session).

Students who work without obtaining a work permit, work more than the permitted number of hours, or work in prohibited businesses or industries will be subject to severe punishment in accordance with Japanese law, such as deportation from Japan.

8. Culture Shock

By participating in this program, you will have the opportunity to meet new people and experience different things which will allow you to reflect upon or even change how you view the world. We sincerely hope your time at APU and Japan will be an enriching experience.

However, you will most likely experience some form of stress sometime during the program as you encounter a new environment, experience fatigue from travel and change in climate, form new relationships, are separated from families and friends and experience culture shock!

Your experience may differ from your peers and but this feeling of disorientation is a normal process you will go through as you adjust to a new culture and environment. The model below illustrates the process of cultural adjustment one experiences when in a new culture.

9. Warning: Criminal Behavior and Drugs

APU opened in April of 2000 with the cooperation of Oita prefecture and Beppu city, in the form of land grants and approximately JPY 20 billion in assistance to help us build our school. Furthermore, since the opening of the university, many companies, organizations, individuals, governments, Oita Prefecture, Beppu City, and the Ritsumeikan Trust have provided over JPY2.2 billion every year in scholarships for international students, and domestic students are provided with over JPY 800 million yen in loans. This shows us how great the public's expectations are for the growth of APU and all its students.

The majority of students have understood this, and worked hard towards their studies and research, extracurricular activities and local exchange activities, leading a fulfilling student life here. Unfortunately, however, it is a fact that there are some students who are involved in nuisance and criminal behavior in the local community. The university is a place to inquire into the truth through study and research; criminal acts and nuisance behavior is not to be tolerated. Nuisance and criminal behavior by APU students are not only a problem for the university and the students who caused the problems but it lowers the reputation of all APU students, and the entire university and then the trust and goodwill until now from the community will be lost. Your student life would not be able to exist without the trust from the local citizens of Beppu city and Oita prefecture. APU respond to nuisance and illegal behavior severely with suspensions, expulsions, and the suspension or cancellation of scholarships according to the following Disciplinary Standards. The university believes that nuisance or illegal behavior is unacceptable; we hope that students will be able to understand the necessity for these responses and help prevent future offenses.

[Disciplinary Standards ]

Shoplifting .....	One Quarter Suspension and One Semester Scholarship Suspension
Theft .....	One Quarter Suspension and Scholarship Suspension
Nuisance Parking near APU .....	One Quarter Suspension and One Semester Scholarship Suspension

The prohibition of marijuana and other illicit drugs

In Japan, there have been successive arrests of university students regarding the possession, cultivation, and use of marijuana and other illicit drugs. The criminal actions and dependability of the use of marijuana and illicit drugs can lead to a dreadful failure of student life. At APU there are international students from many countries, it is necessary for students to correctly understand the dangers and the strict punishment for severe crimes in Japan in order for them to understand the mistakes such as the legality in differing countries, the low dangers compared to regular cigarettes and that there is no punishment just for using it. It is also necessary to prevent students from coming in contact in having an easy-going feeling and/or a one-time interest in marijuana and illicit drugs.

[Criminal actions and dependability of the use of marijuana]

1) Marijuana use and possession carry severe penalties in Japan under the Marijuana Control Law

Possession of Marijuana (passing or receiving) –Maximum five years imprisonment

Mediating the passing or receiving – Maximum two years imprisonment

Sale of Marijuana – Maximum seven years imprisonment

Import or Export of Marijuana – Maximum seven years imprisonment

Import or Export of Marijuana for the purpose of sales – maximum ten years imprisonment

In addition to any applicable criminal penalties, any students found possessing or using marijuana will face expulsion from APU, and international students face the additional penalty of forced expulsion from Japan with a lifetime prohibition from entering Japan.

2) Dependability

You lose your ability to stop using it and the quantity you use increases as well as the frequency of use.

Effects on the body There is 50% more tar in marijuana than regular cigarettes, which cause paranasal sinusitis, bronchitis pulmonary emphysema, and cancer of the lungs. Damage to reproductive competence can cause abnormal genes/sudden mutation, and marijuana poisoning of the fetus, miscarriage/still-birth when pregnant. It can also cause profound mental handicap, including a sudden decline in memory, consciousness disorder, hallucinations and delusions due to injury to brain cells.

Mental Effects As first there is emotional uneasiness, decline in concentration and patience as well as a decline in energy and self initiative. Gradually, hallucinations and delusions arise, and then symptoms of depression and paranoia set in. Depending on the ingestion of marijuana there is a strong influence for these mental disorders to become what is generally known as marijuana illness.
