

Guidelines for Best Paper Award for Graduate Students in AY2024

The Best Paper Award is awarded to graduate students whose research is deemed to be of an exceptionally high quality. The award is open to graduate students who submit their full papers for screening and give English presentations during the conference. By applying for the award, you can receive the conference's registration fee waiver as well*.

*The registration fee for APU students is ¥0 regardless of whether or not they apply for the Best Paper Award.

1. Eligibility

An applicant must meet all conditions below to be eligible for submission.

- Be a full-time graduate student as of June 30, 2024
- Have completed an application to present in the AP Conference 2024 in English
- Have passed the screening of the AP Conference 2024 and received notification of such
- If there are co-authors, they must also be full-time students at the time of application.
