学生への要望事項
Requirements for Students

Participation
Students are expected to participate actively in all class activities. This means:
a) following the teacher's instructions;
b) not sleeping in class;
c) working actively with classmates;
d) using English at all times;
e) bringing appropriate materials to class.

Attendance
All classes will be held in person on the APU Campus. Students are expected to attend all classes.

Lateness to Class
Students who are not present when attendance is taken will be officially recorded as absent.

Absence from Class
Students must attend at least 75% of classes (including lessons, tests and other examinations) to pass the course. Students who do not meet this attendance requirement will automatically receive a fail (F) grade. Absences will only be excused in the following cases:
a. Contraction of an infectious disease (as recognized by Japanese School Health Law). Students must apply to the APU Academic Office with the required documentation in order to have their absences from English class excused for this reason.
b. University-authorized leave of absence. In this case students must apply to the relevant APU office for a leave of absence. The office will then notify teachers directly.

Responsibility of absent students:
Students who are absent from class must contact classmates or their teacher to find out about work done or assigned during their absence.
Students who miss final week assessments must contact their teacher(s) as soon as possible to request a make-up.

Plagiarism:
Students must not copy the work of others, in whole or in part, without use of academic citation. Instructors check student's work for plagiarism carefully, especially with reference to online sources. A student who plagiarizes will receive a mark of zero on the assignment and may possibly fail the course.

Test Rules:
Students must follow test rules very carefully. If test rules are broken during a test, students will automatically receive a grade of zero for that test and may fail the entire course. Students are also advised to read the APU Undergraduate Academic Handbook carefully, especially Section 4.1.1, which explains the consequences of cheating on examinations.

Language Policy:
Students should use English at all times (even during breaks, etc).

Classroom Rules
The following are not permitted during class time (without the teacher's permission):
- Checking email and social media;
- Searching the internet;
- Making phone calls;
- Doing work for other classes;
- Taking photos or recording the class.
