

Faculty Information

NATSUDA Kaoru

■ Division:

Development Economics (DE)
International Public Administration (IPA)

■ Research Area:

International development, International political economy, Policy studies

■ Research Methods:

Qualitative method

■ Seminar Topic and Keywords:

Industrial development, Rural and community development, Industrial policy, Global value chain studies, Social capital studies, Automotive industry, and Apparel industry

■ Seminar Teaching Method:

Thesis supervision

■ Possible Research Topics for Students:

Industrial development, Rural and community development, Industrial policy, State capacity, Industry studies (particularly automotive and apparel industries), Global value chain studies, Social capital studies, One village one product, Poverty alleviation, Japanese FDI and management, Japan-ASEAN economic relations, East Asia, Southeast Asia, and Central and Eastern Europe

■ Comments: