

Faculty Information

SUDO Tomonori

■ Division:

International Public Administration (IPA)
Sustainability Science (SS)
Development Economics (DE)

■ Research Area:

Environmental Economics (mainly focus on the Environmental market creation, climate finance), Environmental policy (incl International Environmental Agreements), Development Economics (Mainly focus on the Growth theory), Development policy and Development Cooperation Policy

■ Research Methods:

Combination of theoretical and empirical methods

■ Seminar Topic and Keywords:

SDGs, climate change, Green growth theory and its application, Environmental Market creation, development policy and practice

■ Seminar Teaching Method:

Knowledge sharing by presentations

■ Possible Research Topics for Students:

Any related to environment and development issues

■ Comments: