

Western Union Global Scholars Program 2023 Application Information (APU)

The Global Scholars Program targets international students in select countries around the world, including Australia, Canada, Europe, Japan, New Zealand, Singapore. University officials are asked to submit nominations for students who fit the following eligibility profile:

- ✓ Must be an international student enrolled in the 2023-24 Academic Year (or Calendar Year 2023) and currently residing in one of the selected countries, including Australia, Canada, Europe, Japan, New Zealand, Singapore.
- ✓ Must be in their final or penultimate year of a full-time undergraduate (Bachelor's) degree program at an accredited higher education institution.
- ✓ Must be able to demonstrate financial need.
- ✓ Must be in good academic standing, have high ambitions, and a demonstrated commitment to their chosen field of study.

University officials are able to nominate up to five students per university for whom help is most needed to cover tuition and fees. IIE will follow up with nominated students to request that they complete additional information as part of an application to be considered for an award. Not all nominated students will receive an award. Selected scholars will receive up to $10,000 USD based on the cost of tuition and fees at the university and their demonstrated financial need.

These scholarships are made possible by the generosity of the Western Union Foundation and are administered by the Institute of International Education (IIE).
